Consolidation of Agricultural Holdings

3878. SHRI PUTTAPAGA RADHAKRISHNA: Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under consideration of Government to consolidate the holdings of agricultural land and mechanisation of agriculture; and

(b) if so, by when it is likely to be completed?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI YOGENDRA MAKWANA): (a) and (b) Since land is a State subject, consolidation of holdings is undertaken by them. 15 States in the country have so far enacted laws on consolidation of land holdings.

Consolidation has been completed in Punjab and Haryana and is nearing completion in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Gujarat, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir and Karnataka, Madhya Pradesh and Orissa have also started consolidation operations. The total area consolidated till the end of the Sixth Plan was 532 25 lakh hectares. During 1985-86 and 1986-87 an area of 21 90 lakh hectares has been consolidated. However, it has not made much headway in many States including the Eastern Region.

Regarding mechanisation, Government have laid stress on selective mechanisation. The following steps have been taken during the 7th Plan in respect of farm mechanisation:—

(i) Adequate capacities for manufacture of tractors, power tillers, harvester combines, etc have been created.

(ii) Steps have been taken to popularise animal-drawn improved agricultural implements and handtools for efficiently utilising the animal and human power. For this purpose a Centrally Sponsored Scheme has been launched.

(iii) 21 improved agricultural implements/handtools have been identified by a Committee for manufacture and popularisation.

(iv) Supporting services, in terms of training of farmers and technicians and testing of agricultural machinery and implements have been expanded.

(v) Adequat credit facilities have have been made availale through institutional sources for enabling the farmers to procure agricultural machinery.

(vi) Under various schemes of the Central and State Governments, improved agricultural implements and handtools are supplied to the eligible category of farmers at subsidised rates.
